

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

This chapter consists of two sections, the conclusion and suggestion, based on the result of data analysis or findings of this research.

5.1 Conclusion

This study reveals that the mobilization of teachers in carrying out their role in teaching English in secondary schools is as follows: Be a learning leader, mentor other teachers, change agents, learner-oriented leaders, bring innovation and creativity, inspire and motivate students , as well as in implementing the role as a mobilizing teacher, each has its own way.

5.2 Suggestions

The advice for the next researcher is. As follows:

1. For subsequent researchers who will conduct the same study can develop research objectives that want to be studied and focus more on what is studied.
2. The researcher must understand about the focus of the study to be studied by multiplying the literature studies related to the focus of the study to be studied.
3. For the next researchers, it is recommended that further improve the accuracy both in terms of completeness of the data obtained.